

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
|--|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object: Bryophyta sp. Museum: Museum für NaturkundeChemnitzMoritzstraße 2009111 Chemnitz+49(0)371 4884551info@naturkunde-chemnitz.de Collection: Wirbellose Inventory number: II-145-A |
|--|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Die meisten der häufigsten einheimischen Arten sind Laubmoose (Bryophyta sp.).

Basic data

Material/Technique:

Naturobjekt präpariert

Measurements:

LxBxH 6 x 6 x 5 cm

Keywords

- Moss
- Moss