

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
|--|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object: Orakelfrage Museum: Ägyptisches Museum und PapyrussammlungBodestraße 1-310178 Berlin030 / 266 42 5001aemp@smb.spk-berlin.de Collection: Papyrussammlung Inventory number: P 7318 |
|--|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Stotoetis, Sohn des Apynchis und Enkel des Tesenuphis, fragt die Götter Soknopaïos und Sokonpieios, ob er wieder gesund wird.

Duplikat: BGU I 230.

Nach BerlPap: <http://berlpap.smb.museum/02134/>

Basic data

|                     |                                                      |
|---------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Papyrus (Material); einseitig, beschriftet (Technik) |
| Measurements:       | Höhe x Breite: 4,4 x 11,7 cm (lt. BerlPap)           |

Events

|         |       |                    |
|---------|-------|--------------------|
| Created | When  | 1. century CE      |
|         | Who   |                    |
|         | Where | Faiyum Governorate |