

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object: Alexius Friedrich Christian,Herzog von Anhalt-Bernburg Museum: Museum Schloss BernburgSchlossstraße 2406406 Bernburg(0 34 71) 62 50 07mail@museumschlossbernburg.de Collection: Grafiksammlung Inventory number: Vlb:55:130 |
|--|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Dargestellt ist Alexius Friedrich Christian, ältest reg. Herzog von Anhalt-Bernburg.
Alexius Friedrich Christian, Fürst (ab 1807 Herzog) von Anhalt-Bernburg (* 12. Juni 1767 in Ballenstedt; † 24. März 1834 ebenda)
Bezeichnung: Stdr. v. M. Bauer Leipzig, Lithog. von F. A. Fricke

Basic data

|                     |                |
|---------------------|----------------|
| Material/Technique: | Lithografie    |
| Measurements:       | 16,9 x 13,6 cm |

Events

|                               |       |                                                                     |
|-------------------------------|-------|---------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Created                       | When  |                                                                     |
|                               | Who   | Friedrich August Fricke (1784-1858)                                 |
|                               | Where |                                                                     |
| Was depicted(Actor)       | When  |                                                                     |
|                               | Who   | Alexius Frederick Christian, Duke of Anhalt-Bernburg(1767-1834) |
|                               | Where |                                                                     |
| [Relationshipto location] | When  |                                                                     |
|                               | Who   |                                                                     |
|                               | Where | Anhalt-Bernburg                                                     |

Keywords

- Lithography
- Portrait