

|  |                   |                                                                                                     |
|--|-------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object:           | Ansicht der Villa Albani vor der Porta Salaria (aus: Vedute di Roma)                                |
|  | Museum:           | KupferstichkabinettMatthäikirchplatz10785 Berlin030 / 266424201kk@smb.spk-berlin.de |
|  | Inventory number: | AM 246-1961                                                                                         |

Description

Entstehungsort stilistisch: Rom

Basic data

|                     |                                           |
|---------------------|-------------------------------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Radierung                                 |
| Measurements:       | Höhe x Breite: 44,3 x 70 cm (Plattenrand) |

Events

|                         |       |                                        |
|-------------------------|-------|----------------------------------------|
| Printing plate produced | When  | 1769-1771                              |
|                         | Who   | Giovanni Battista Piranesi (1720-1778) |
|                         | Where |                                        |
| Drawn                   | When  | 1769-1771                              |
|                         | Who   | Giovanni Battista Piranesi (1720-1778) |
|                         | Where |                                        |

Keywords

- Etching