

|  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|  | Object:Zeichnung, Karl Marmor'sches Haus in Bergzabern Rötzgasse Museum:Museum der Stadt Bad BergzabernKönigstraße 4576887 Bad Bergzabern+49 (0)6343 701601stadt.bad-bergzabern@vgbza.de Collection:Bilder des Museums Inventory number:BIL1000011146 |
|--|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

Description

Es ist das Karl Marmor'sche Haus in Bad Bergzabern in der Rötzgasse dargestellt.

Basic data

|                     |                    |
|---------------------|--------------------|
| Material/Technique: | Bleistiftzeichnung |
| Measurements:       | H x B: 36 x 25 cm  |

Events

|                            |       |                            |
|----------------------------|-------|----------------------------|
| Created                    | When  | 1926                       |
|                            | Who   | Karl Strickler (1864-1941) |
|                            | Where |                            |
| [Relationship to location] | When  |                            |
|                            | Who   |                            |
|                            | Where | Bad Bergzabern             |

Keywords

- Drawing
- House
- Local history